Description	As part of UGC Guidelines, an Anti-Ragging Week Celebration (12th to 18th August, 2026) Nootan College of Physiotherapy, Sankalchand Patel University, Visnagar organized Short Film making on Anti Ragging theme on 14th August, 2026 at 3:00 PM at IV BPT Classroom. The aim of the event to educate students about the importance of mutual respect and the strict policies against ragging. It promotes a safe and respectful campus environment as we observe Anti Ragging Week. Objective - To educate students about the importance of mutual respect and the strict policies against ragging. - To promote a safe and respectful campus environment through creative engagement aligned with UGC guidelines of Anti Ragging Week. - To provide an interactive platform (Short Film making) for students to express Anti Ragging Theme and internalize the institutional commitment against ragging. Session Overview The session commenced with a warm welcome, following presetting short film front of faculties and all NCP students at 3:00 PM at I BPT Classroom. III BPT students participated in this event. Emphasis was placed on conveying powerful messages through simple visuals. Outcomes & Impact Heightened Awareness: By toggling creativity with strong messaging, students gained a deeper appreciation of anti ragging norms and why they're vital in the educational environment. Peer Influence: As future senior/juniors peers, participants are now better equipped to advocate for a respectful campus culture. UGC Compliance and Creativity: Aligns with UGC that encourage using film making events and creative avenues during Anti Ragging Week
